New CLE materials

➤ Immigration Consequences of Criminal Convictions and Civil Collateral Consequences for Non- Citizens (1.5 hours CLE)

As the state of California becomes more diverse, so do persons charged with criminal offenses that may affect their ability to become lawful citizens in the future or to remain in this country. This primer on the relationship between criminal and immigration law offers key strategies to minimize the immigration consequences of criminal offenses and convictions. Speakers: Dan DeGriselles, Anne Perry. Recorded September, 2011.

➤ Low to No-Cost Internet Applications: E-Tools for Lawyers (1.5 hours CLE)

Are you missing the incredible internet tools that are available to attorneys? Learn how to find and benefit from "free" online applications, products, and services for your legal practice. Speakers: Jim Robinson, Timothy Stanley. Recorded September 2011.

➤ Yes, Virginia, There are Ethics Rules for Mediations (1 hour CLE in Ethics)

Learn where ethics rules and mediation rules overlap. Maintain zealous advocacy while respecting ethical restrictions in the negotiating context. Recorded in 2010.

➤ Ethical Attorney Advertising and Solicitation in the Social-Media Age (1.5 hours CLE of which 1 hour is in Ethics)

Rule 1-400 regulates attorney advertising and solicitation. It was last amended in 1997, and at that time, law firm websites were rare and the founders of Facebook were in middle school. This information-packed program will show you how to comply with the advertising and solicitation rules in the Internet/Web-2.0 era. Speakers: Robert Brownstone, Gideon Grunfeld. Recorded September, 2011.
