History

The Guam Law Library serves the legal information needs for the courts of the Guam, officials and employees of the Government of Guam, and the citizens of our community. By providing legal resources and research services, the library holds an essential role in guaranteeing the fair administration of justice.

Established pursuant to 9 GCA §9201 et seq., as a tax-exempt non-profit educational corporation, the library is the largest and most complete legal research center on Guam, and its collection includes federal statutory materials, legal encyclopedias and treatises, periodicals, and legal resources from our Pacific Island neighbors.

The library is governed by an appointed Board of Trustees.
